OUR PROJECTS

Action for Mobilization of Community Health Initiatives [AMCHI]:

AMCHI, which means “Ours” in Marathi, is a community empowerment project that works with women, children and communities at large as well as with service providers like health workers, school teachers and gram sevaks for better quality, accountability and transparency in health, education and other services. AMCHI is implemented in 96 villages under nine Primary Health Centers in the Shahapur block of Thane district, Maharashtra.

Activities

- Parivartan ki Oar: Theatre-based workshops to motivate and strengthen the communication skills of service providers
- Micro-planning at the village level to identify issues and develop community-driven action plans
- Amcha Gaon Amchi Shaan village development contest
- Innovative training programmes with school children, panchayat members, women and youth groups and village level committees to empower them to play a proactive role in village development
- AMCHI livelihood initiatives involving women’s self-help groups (SHGs)

LAADDI - A Girl Child Campaign

Laaddi, Population First’s girl child campaign was launched in June 2005 to address the problem of the falling sex ratio highlighted in the Census of 2001. However, over the years the scope of the project was redefined to work with media, advertising and youth to address the reasons why she is considered unwanted and underminded in our society.

Objective

To influence the influencers to promote gender equality and stop gender-based violence

Strategy

- Break the silence around gender discrimination and violence using media, advertising and films
- Increase the visibility of the issue in the public domain
- Influence the opinion makers to be the advocates for gender equality and sensitivity
- Engage youth innovatively on the issue

Activities

Laaddi Media Advocacy

Laaddi Media & Advertising Awards for Gender Sensitivity (LMAAGS) acknowledges and felicitates gender sensitive reportage in the media and portrayals in electronic and print media

Population First works with college students through the National Service Scheme (NSS) Network and Women Development Cells (WDC) to organize:

- Discussion Forums
- Communication Techniques and Campaign Management Workshops
- Self-Empowerment to Social Transformation Workshops to provide communication and negotiation skills to youth to redefine gender equations at home, in colleges, on the streets and at work places
- Change Makers Clubs: To create non judgemental space in colleges to engage students on gender issues
- Mainstream gender into the ongoing curricular and co-curricular activities

Ad and Media Analysis: Films, advertisements and news reports are regularly analyzed from a gender perspective to highlight the subliminal gendered messaging in communication.

Laaddi Fellowships are given to journalists and film scriptwriters to promote investigative reporting on gender issues and gender sensitive portrayals.

Gender and Media Workshops for Working and student journalists and film scriptwriters to sensitize them to gender issues through interactive theatre based workshops.

Innovative activities: A number of collaborative events are organized with media and advertising agencies and organizations to promote gender sensitivity in the media.

Laaddi Youth Initiatives: We interact with more than 20,000 college students every year to help them question the dominant gender perceptions and redefine gender equations. Apart from that, we have developed modules on facilitation skills for teachers to initiate conversations with students on gender issues in classrooms.
